Two good men will come from Boston and Teddy Carroll, the Springfield flyer, who has not raced here this year had his entry in. He will have fast company in Bill Prescott and Johnny Cox, the former the man that beat Carroll twice at Norwich in November, Benny Driscoll will be here also this time with a machine that will work. He came to Norwich Labor day, but, his machine being in bad shape, he would not start.

James Pallazo, who was from New-irgh when he raced here the first me, but who is now living in Bridge-art, will be here. He aced at Char-r Oak last week and is in good the Cak last week and is in good thape.

Wild Bill Burdick will go into all the open races, of course. He realizes that this is a great meet, with everything for blood, and he will try to bring home some of the bacon this time. His old county rival Latham of Lebanon, is expected to enter. In the local race there will be J. C. Garding of Jewett City, Walter Chappell of North Pranklin H B. Baldwin of Norwich and Robert Thayer of Norwich and Robert Thayer of Norwich and and Thayer are new men.

The consolation race, for men that have never taken first money in an open race in this county, will have priscoll. Plazzo, Baldwin and Chappell.

The Million Dollar Mystery Today Only-Three Great Vaudeville Acts. Starting today and each week fol-lowing, the Million Dollar Mystery will be shown on Monday only; to-day's episode, No. 9, will be seen at day's episode, No. 9, will be seen at all three performances, the title of the two reels is The Leap from An Ocean Liner and is one of the most thrilling chapters of this great picture. Countess Olga having succeeded in making Florence believe her sweetheart, Norton, false, the conspirators strive to get Florence into their power, and to rid themselves of Norton's presence in the game. They secure a medical certificate, signed under threats by two doctors, to the effect that Florence is insane, then they cleverly abduct her right under the nose of the police and carry her that Florence is insane, then they cleverly abduct her right under the nose of the police and carry her aboard an out-going liner. This episode thrills with intense action, one of the principle feats is when Florence jumps from the liner during the night when it is far out at sea and is picked up by a fishing schooner, but the trials have left her mind a blank, and her whereabouts is unknown to her friends or her enemies. No one who has followed this great serial can afford to miss the installment toda; $10,000 in cash will be paid to the may woman or child who sends in the best solution of the mystery. Follow the pictures here each week and see if you cannot win the big prize, an excellent vaudeville program has been booked for the first half of the week, with Winfred and Marton, two jolly colored comedians in the laughable skit. The Chinaman and the Coon Martine and Perkins are two clever musical boys who have a big time musical novelty, playing several instruments in their own inimitable way. The other act is Harrington is a clever monologuist and his canine assistants do some remarkable feats. The remainder of the bill consists of the Mutual War Weekly with news direct from the big conflict in Europe, The Masquerader is a funny Keystone comedy with Charile Chaplin, the little fellow, who everyone likes to see. Bargain matinee daily at 2.30, 5 and 10 cents.

Brooklyn Fair.

This is the week of the old-Windham county fair at Brooklyn; Conn., an annual exhibition that has been an attraction for scores of years and for hundreds of thousands of people. In keeping it up to the standard that has made it so deservedly popular the management this year has arranged for an exhibition that will not only afford an opportunity for displaying the prime agricultural products of the county and prize cattle from many choice herds, but as well a host of special features that will contribute in various ways to making the show special features that will contribute in various ways to making the show appeal to old and young rich and poor—people from all walks of life.

The dates for the fair this year are Sept. 22, 23, 24. Tuesday will be entry day, Wednesday the first big day. Thursday the closing day of the fair. All entries are to be in by 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon so that the fair will be perfected when the gates are opened Wednesday morning.

Wednesday is to be exhibition day in all departments. There will be an extensive showing of cattle, sheep and

Rev. George H. Ewing Speaks on the War—Breadway Church Paster and Choir at Sheltering Arms—Death of Mrs. John C. Congdon.

Rev. G. H. Ewing spoke in the chapel of the First Congregational church Friday evening on the war in Europe. The presentation of the subject was interesting and instructive in that maps were used in illustrating, and because of the ability of the speaker to make clear events in the past and present that have been more or less obscure. The Latins, the Teutons, the Slavs race hatred, feuds carried over from previous wars, acquisitions of territory as Alsace and Lorraine, Bosnia and Herzegovina, three outside powers against three inside powers, the alliance which Edward the Seventh brought about, the military systhe alliance which Edward the Seventh brought about the military system of England, and also the immediate causes, including those which led to one nation after another entering into the war; all were so presented that those listening could understand, and that facts learned hereafter will fit into their place in the trend of events.

ter will fit into their place in the trend of events.

The way the French armies are meeting the German tactics, also the progress of the war so far were outlined as well as the objects aimed at in the movements of the armies engaged in the conflict, all showing careful study of causes near and remote which have led u pto this great contest among the nations. Mr. Ewing has been asked to repeat the address at an early date.

Remedy for Indigestion or Upset Stomach.

Let us tell you how to enjoy your meals so that even the heartiest dinner will set well on your stomach, cause no unpleasant or disagreeable aftereffects.

There is no hard work; no need of a rigid diet list; no disagreeable medicine; instead, eat what you like and use Mi-o-na Tablets. They are not only a digestive and antacid giving prompt and effective relief but a specific for disordered stomachs, Do not endure indigestion another day. Mi-ona surely and safely strengthens the digestive organs, soothes the irritated digestive organs, soothes the irritated membrane, and increases the flow of gastric juices so that the stomach can care for the food as nature inach or suffer after-eating misery. Get from The Lee & Osgood Co. or any druggists a fifty cent box of Mi-o-na today—take two or three tablets at the first sign of distress. Keep it in the house—carry it when traveling—it's at all times the dependable stomach

LEGAL NOTICES

State of Connecticut TREASURY DEPARTMENT TAXES ON INVESTMENTS

All persons owning bonds or notes liable to taxation should write at once to State Treasurer, Hartford, Conn., for lists. A circular letter will be sent when requested, explaining the proper way to pay this tax.

A law will be introduced in the next General Assembly, and will be urged for passage, taxing estates at the local rates for all the time owned by decedents on such choses in action as have not paid during the life of the owner. This is in the nature of a penalty.

Savings Bank deposits are not li-able to tax in the owner's name. Money in bank (not a Savings Bank) can pay the four mill tax as shown in the circular letter. Lists of property liable to a tax are to be made out as of March 1st, in Waterbury; as of May, 1st in Middletown; as of June 1st in New Haven; as of July 1st in Wallingford; as of September 1st in Bridgeport; and as of October 1st, in all other towns in the State.

This tax may be paid to the State Treasurer AT ANY TIME and exempts for one or more years from and after the date of payment to the Treasurer, but MIST BE PAID before the date when the local tax list is due.

Enquire of your banker or write to the Treasurer at Hartford. EDWARD S. ROBERTS.

THE END OF SUMMER. rose that wrote its message on Bright manuscript has turned her perfumed face Toward Fall and waits, heart-heavy for the moon's
Pale flower to take her place.

With eyes distraught and dark, disheveled hair
The Season dons a tattered cloak of storm
And waits with Night that, darkly, seems to share
Her trouble and alarm.

It is the close of Summer. In the The sunset lit a fire of drift and sat Watching the last Day, robed in em-pire, die Upon the burning Khat.

The first leaf crimsons and the last rose falls,
And Aight goes stalking on, her
cloak of rain
Dripping, and followed through her haunted halls
By all Death's phantom train.

The sorrow of the Earth and all that And all that suffers, in her breast She bears;
Outside the House of Life she stops and cries
The burden of her cares.

Then on the window knocks with haggard hands.
Her tree-like arms to Heaven wildly hurled;
Love hears her crying: "Who then understands?
Has God forgot the world?"

Chauffeur—No sir; only when it's running.—Buffalo Express. Polly—When they came back from their wedding trip he had just two dollars and sixty cents in his pocket. Peggy—The stingy thing!—Boston

"Yes, I have a nice little home the suburhs."

"Raise chickens, do you?"

"No; I passed that stage two years ago."—Pittsburgh Post. Road Cop-You say that's your car' Tattered wretches like you don't own cars!

Seedy Driver-I bought it five years ago and haven't had the price of a sult since!—Chicago News. "But how did he happen to get en-saged to the girl if he doesn't love her?"
"Why, he says he was convincing when he merely meant to be plausi-ble."—Judge. Marie-That's a beautiful gown you have on!

Molly—Do you know that lace is 40 years old?
Marie—That so? Make it yourself?
—Zion's Herald. "What would you do if the boat were to sink, Mary?"

"I can't swim, so I'd just have to throw my arms around your neck and hang on for dear life."

"Mary, I do believe the boat is sinking."—Life.

The young man had threatened suicide if she rejected him. And although she did, he didn't.
"Why didn't he?" was asked.
"Said he'd give his heart to her."
"What's that got to do with it?"
"Oh, he didn't have the heart to kill himself."—Boston Truth.

"Why are you so pensive?" he ask ed.
"I'm not pensive," she replied.
"But you haven't said a word for minutes."
"Well, I didn't have anything to say."

"Don't you ever say anything when you have nothing to say "
"No." "Will you be my wife."-Chicago

Philadelphia uses an accurate test-ing plant, carried on an automobile, to ascertain whether its various forms of street lights are maintained at con-tract standard. Fire losses and the expense of fire prevention cost the United States more each year than the total value of its production of gold, silver, cop-per and petroleum.

The tax which will be paid for the purpose of education is not more than the thousandth part of what will be paid to kings, priests and nobles who will rise up among us if we leave the people in ignorance.—Thomas Jef-

War is commonly reputed to be hell. Each nation is praying to God that it may excel in making a superior brand of hell. They must have forgotten who reigns in hell. God is not the head of that department of the universe. Give the devil his due.—Winnipeg Voice. Consul W. F. Doty, of Rassau, calls attention to various plants which grow or might be grown in the Babamas from which essential oils and spices might be obtained. Andropogon nardus grass, yielding citronella; Andropowon citratus, yielding lemon grass oil; Croton eluteris from which cascarella is extracted; vanilla beans and nutmegs are all found on the islands to a limited extent.
